

Free Public Lecture • Thursday, July 24, 2008 • 7 p.m. USGS Conference Room A, Bldg. 3 • 345 Middlefield Road, Menlo Park, CA

A Moroccan Adventure

Searching for a blue-eyed turtle in the Sahara Desert

Rabat

MOROCCO

• Marrakech

See several ecoregions of central Morocco in a picturesque 1,000 mile journey

Take a virtual tour from the Atlantic coast through High Atlas Mountains to the Sahara Desert

Learn about the only blue-eyed turtle in the world, found in a river flowing through the Sahara Desert

By Fulbright Scholars
USGS Herpetologist
Jeffrey Lovich and visiting Cadi Ayyad
University (Marrakech)
Professor Mohammed Znari

